

CAMPER'S CODE OF CONDUCT BEHAVIOUR

1. Campers should accept and get along with fellow campers and be sensitive to others with respect to race, religion, physical characteristics and language. Teasing, practical jokes, insults, ethnic and religious slurs, obscene language etc. will not be tolerated from any camper.
2. Campers must respect others (campers, camp officials and guests) and their personal space. Campers must refrain from touching others in harmful or inappropriate ways as well as excessive touching or signs of affection towards campers and members of staff.
3. Campers must respect the property/belongings of others. Campers who steal or maliciously vandalise NIHERST property and/or external camp venues will be required to replace the damaged/stolen item at the parent/guardian's expense. In the case of theft it may warrant immediate dismissal from the camp depending on the severity of the incident.
4. Campers must follow directions the first time they are given by counsellors, as they are for the safety of everyone on the camp site.
5. Campers must pay attention to their surroundings and use care in all activities.
6. Campers must adhere to all safety rules and regulations given for each activity and while using equipment related to the sessions that he/she participates in while at camp.
7. Campers must inform staff/counsellors if they are experiencing a problem with a fellow camper or any other issue. If we are not informed about a problem we cannot stop the problem or assist the camper.
8. All campers are expected to observe the guidelines set forth in the CAMPER'S CODE OF CONDUCT as well as be prepared to learn and participate in all camp activities.

Violation of the CODE OF CONDUCT can be grounds for automatic dismissal from the camp. Refunds are not given when a camper is dismissed from the programme.
